May 2009 Iyar/Sivan 5769

“And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them: ‘Hear, O Israel, the statutes and the ordinances which I speak in your ears this day, that ye may learn them, and observe to do them. The Lord our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. The Lord made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day. The Lord spoke with you face to face in the mount out of the midst of the fire- I stood between the Lord and you at that time, to declare unto you the word of the Lord; for ye were afraid because of the fire, and went not up into the mount-saying:

Deuteronomy 5:1-5

.....Honour thy father and thy mother, as the Lord thy God commanded thee; that thy days may be long, and that it may go well with thee, upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Deuteronomy 5:16

A View from the Top - Sinai on the Hill

In Celebration of Mother’s Day & Father’s Day

Mothers and Fathers who brought us into the world so we, like our parents before us and those that stood at the foot of Mount Sinai, can teach our children about Judaism, Torah, Mitzvot and Tzedakah.

Dear Congregants:

The Board of Directors of Temple Sinai is proud and excited to announce its selection of our new Rabbi. Aaron Fine will assume his duties as our rabbi within the next few months. We are making this announcement not only to the Temple Sinai membership, but the surrounding Jewish community and the greater community of the North Shore as well. The Rabbi Search Committee, under the chairmanship of our President Allen Kamer, began intensive deliberation last December. Sometimes meeting as often as twice weekly, the Search Committee reviewed seven applications, interviewed several candidates, invited four candidates to meet the Temple membership and officiate during Shabbat weekends, and reviewed the answers to questionnaires sent out following each candidate visit, finally presenting its selection to the Ritual Committee. This was followed by an overwhelming majority vote by the Ritual Committee to approve the recommendation of the Rabbi Search Committee and finally unanimous approval by the Board. Rabbi Fine has enthusiastically accepted the Rabbinical and leadership responsibilities that Temple Sinai asked and required.

Rabbi Fine, a native of Massachusetts, attended Oberlin College, where he graduated with a BA in Jewish Studies. He also studied for several months at Shappells College of Jewish Studies, Yeshivat Darche Noam in Jerusalem. He will be ordained at the end of May 2009 at Hebrew College graduating with a dual degree in Rabbinical Studies leading to Ordination and a Masters in Jewish Education. Quoting a reference the Rabbi Search Committee received: “Judaism is central to Aaron and he is very steeped in Jewish traditions, he will provide to any Congregation a strong traditional, Jewish lifestyle for them to follow. He is a natural leader, seeking out people.”

Besides his strong interest and dedication to Judaism, Rabbi Fine has an additional strong interest in the arts. To that end he spent several months studying filmmaking at Tisch School of the Arts, New York University. He has since then completed six film projects.

During several interviews with the Rabbi Search Committee, Aaron emphasized his interest in integrating the arts with his rabbinical responsibilities at Temple Sinai. His past experience would certainly prepare him for that and we look forward to what he will be doing especially developing programs with Adult Education, the NSHS and Temple Youth.

His rabbinic work experience included working as chaplain for the Heart and Lung Transplant ICU at University of Washington Medical Center, Seattle, WA. Rabbi Fine expanded on this particular experience during the Question and Answer period during his weekend visit with us and the profound effect it had on him. He also interned at Temple Beth Zion and Kehilat Israel in Brookline, MA. His experience in Jewish Education included teaching at Gann Academy, and Prozdor Hebrew High School where he created and taught several semester classes which included such diverse subjects as “Dreaming in the Jewish Tradition” and “Hasidism a Personal Exploration.”

With respect to our pre-teen population and pre- and post- Bar/Bat Mitzvah members of Temple Sinai and the surrounding Community, Rabbi Fine will bring the experience he received while being a counselor and Camp Director for several years at a Jewish Day Camp in Amherst. While there he developed and implemented educational programming based in Jewish culture, Jewish tradition and social activism. Additionally, Rabbi Fine showed early administrative skills, by creating the necessary pathway by which Camp Shemesh continued to grow and thrive following his departure as Camp Director. Rabbi Fine has strongly indicated that he wants to bring his interests in youth and Judaism to Temple Sinai and the surrounding community and we look forward to his future programming, innovation and strengthening the “young” Jewish community bond within the North Shore. (continued on page 2)

Very soon, Rabbi Aaron Fine and his wife Emily, who is studying clinical psychology at Antioch, will be moving to the Marblehead-Swampscott area. These are exciting times for Temple Sinai and our Community. We all look forward to a “revival of Jewishness” led by our new Rabbi and Cantor Aronson who has expressed enthusiasm about working with Rabbi Fine. We not only can look forward to “innovation within tradition” of our spiritual experience at Temple Sinai but also the exciting possibility of our Cantor and Rabbi working together to make Temple Sinai the center to “be, experience and rediscover our Judaism”.

Quoting from another of the references we received for Rabbi Fine, “Aaron will help a synagogue find out where they are religiously and then help them meet those needs. He will do this by his teachings and by the rituals the congregation wants”. Rabbi Fine is looking forward to meeting each one of us individually, to listen to our needs and just simply to get to know us. However, for our Temple to grow and provide the spiritual needs of our membership we need your participation and input. We look forward to participating not only within the four walls of our Sanctuary but also within the greater Community.

Please join the Temple Sinai Board in welcoming Rabbi Aaron Fine to our community. For questions regarding the process or to Rabbi Fine please direct them to Temple_Sinai@verizon.net where they will be forwarded appropriately.

Sincerely,

Michael S. Lawee
Chair-Ritual Committee

SINCERE & HEARTFELT APOLOGIES

In the March 2009 Temple Sinai Bulletin, under the Nichumim section, condolences to the Gotlib family on the passing of their family pet were included together with condolences to members of congregation mourning the loss of beloved family members. I apologize to all of the families if this unintentional action offended anyone during their time of mourning and appeared to minimize the significance of your loss. I apologize to the following families:

Mark Korson and Bruce Silverlieb & Family
 Scott and Joanne Solomon & Family
 Alan & Sonia Kalikow & Family
 The family of Glen Yanco
 Susan and Howard Nellhaus & Family
 Laura Levine & Family
 Phyllis Gotlib & Family

Respectfully,
 Bonnie Weiss

SPONSOR A KIDDUSH

The cost to sponsor a Kiddush luncheon is $136.00. This fee includes the purchase of all plastic tablecloths, napkins, cups, plates and flatware and the basic menu items to include:

Assorted Bagels, Challah & Cream Cheese
Herring in Wine & Cream Sauce
Tuna Salad
Tomatoes Cucumbers Green Peppers & Onions
Cakes & Cookies from Stop & Shop
Coffee, Tea, Hot Chocolate Packets
Selection of Fruit Juices
Assorted Wines

All of the above items are purchased by Bob Myra. Typically, the Kiddush is a dairy luncheon. Kiddush sponsors can serve additional refreshments, the cost of which and the purchase of is their responsibility. The host/hostess can opt to provide a meat luncheon.

Consider sponsoring a Kiddush to celebrate a milestone, lifecycle event, graduation, in memory of a family member, a wedding or B'nei Mitzvah anniversary, a birth or birthday, or simply "just because".

Bima Beautification

While our sanctuary is undoubtedly beautiful on its own, you can enhance its beauty while complementing the celebration of Shabbat with a beautiful flower arrangement.

We invite our members to consider selecting a random "just because" Shabbat to donate a bima arrangement or donate an arrangement honoring a special occasion or the memory of a loved one.

Call Robin Dale at the office. She will be happy to help you coordinate your bima beautification Mitzvah

Mazel Tov

Ruth & Jack Aronson honoring their granddaughter, Elana Aronson becoming a Bat Mitzvah

Mazel Tov

Roberta Mendelsohn honoring her granddaughter, Elana Aronson becoming a Bat Mitzvah

$$$ Keepin Kosher keeps us in the Kash $$$

Each time you shop at Larry Levine's Kasher Meats and Deli in Peabody and The Butcherie in Brookline, and bring your sales receipt to the office, the temple earns back 5% of your total purchases.

Just remember the two most important things. At the time of your purchase, ask the sales clerk at the register to stamp the back of your receipt. The other important detail: bring that receipt to the temple as soon as possible. So stop wasting time and start shopping.

SHAVUOT @ TEMPLE SINAI

Friday, May 29 - Morning Services
7:00am & 9:30am - Kiddush to Follow

Friday, May 29 - 6pm Services & Dairy Dinner

Saturday, May 30 - 9:30am Services & Yizkor

A Kicking Kiddush or Two or Three

It is time to roll up your sleeves, put on your Shabbat Sneakers and kick up your heels. Our beloved Bob will be bobbing away on vacation on three Saturdays this summer including June 27, July 4 and August 8. But that won't stop us from having our own "Kickin Kiddush". We need volunteers to do that "Bob" thing. So, why not give the office a jingle and sign up to help kick some knishes (Dairy) into our Kiddush. Please call Robin in the office to sign up.

Presents. Presents & more Presents

We all love presents. While we all love to get them we must remember it is also good to give them. Don't forget those special events during this busy season. Between Father's Day, Weddings, teacher gifts, Showers, Graduations, overnight camp preparations, trips to Israel and the like, there are tons of people who would love to get a gift card. So, for pity sakes give them a gift that counts. Don't forget to order your gift cards with the office so you too can look like a Mensch.

Mazel tov to Joshua Levy and Sara Lodgen on graduating from Prozdor at Hebrew College. Prozdor's graduation will be held at Congregation Mishkan Tefila on Sunday, May 31, 2009. Yasher Koach to all of these young people on reaching this milestone event in their Jewish education. Over 10 Temple Sinai teens study at Prozdor in a myriad of programs. Prozdor is Boston's premier community Hebrew high school located at Hebrew College in Newton Centre on Sunday mornings and Tuesday evenings. If you would like to receive additional information about Prozdor, please contact Abigail Kulick, Director of Admissions and Student Services for Prozdor at (617) 559-8805

SISTERHOOD

Sisterhood Donor Brunch was enjoyed by 60 women, with a great meal by Bruce Silverlieb, the Party Specialist, and a fun program of Raffles, Raffles, and more Raffles, and some really great gifts were won by many of the women. Sisterhood is an important part of the Temple and commits a sizable amount of money to the Temple each year.

Our book group meets monthly and has been together for the past 15 years. We enjoy the sociability and the many books we read.

We hope you take advantage of any program Sisterhood offers. We look forward to seeing and or hearing from you with any suggestions you might have. A call to Judy Locke at 781-581-1447 or Evelyn Kummins at 781-631-3077

NORTH SHORE HEBREW SCHOOL

What's Nu at North Shore Hebrew School?

It is hard for me to fathom that another wonderful year at NSHS is drawing to an end. We have had an exceptional year! The student's Hebrew reading and writing is at a prime and they deserve a pat on the back for the wonderful work they have accomplished this year! Their knowledge of Judaic studies, Israel, Prayer and so forth has allowed me to take pride in their skills and how much they have accomplished and developed throughout the school year. The following is a list of all the exciting events we have coming up for the remainder of the school year. Watch for your flyers as they have all the pertinent information about the events!!

- May 15 is the NSHS Pre Shabbat Kabbalat Shabbat at Temple Sinai.
- May 17th is the NSHS Last Day Festivities - with Jason Knowles. Relay races, ice cream sundae's, awards ceremony, prizes and so much more!

Todah Rabah

Congregation Ahabat Sholom for hosting our most fabulous "Passport to Israel" program and to the wonderful Richard Dailey for helping us setup the room and event! We had an awesome time! Thank you to all our wonderful teachers, madrachim and of course students and families for contributing to its success!

Thank you to Liora Kelman for the wonderful Falafel and Israeli food treats - you are a culinary artist and fabulous teacher.

Adult Education committee for the incredible "Tefillin and Tales" program and especially to George Gammel for cutting out all the wood pieces and straps by hand for the children to make their own Tefillin.

An additional thank-you to the Temple Sinai Adult Ed committee for bringing Leah Larson of Yeldah Magazine to speak on the North Shore. We enjoyed it immensely!

To all the wonderful parents of our students, members of our affiliated congregations, and teachers who work tirelessly throughout the year to help us make all of the events for NSHS a success - we couldn't do it without you!

Refuah Shlema:

We wish a speedy recovery to our Harrison Dale who is recovery from surgery! We look forward to seeing you back at school.

Registration

Packages will be sent out next week for the 2009/10 year. You may also download the forms and register online. NSHS will also be accepting Credit Cards for the upcoming year and you can use those to register and pay your tuition!

In addition, Temple Sinai has allowed NSHS to use their credit card services for families who have outstanding tuition balances. A credit card form has been e-mailed out. If you need or would like to use this service, please contact me and I will e-mail you a copy of the form to complete and send into the office.

Cartridges for Kids - Have old DVD's around, old cell phones, Sony Play stations with accessories, and items of the like, drop them off at either your temple of the NSHS. It costs you nothing, removes items from your home that you don't need and benefits the school. Contact Heather Greenberg for more information at 781-631-1860 or hgreenbergnshs@yahoo.com!

Please continuously check our website and calendar for updated information and events that are continuously happening at our school. As always, if you have a suggestion for the NSHS or an idea you would like to share with us, please contact us!

Have a Happy and Healthy Summer!
Heather Greenberg,
Education Director
